

LOOKOUT
02.2024

Ahoy Customer,

Join us on an exciting journey through the latest issue of the Lookout! Dive into the stories that are shaping the future of the shipping industry, from new collaborations to sustainability efforts. Discover the launch of the 'Gemini Cooperation' with Maersk that will deliver a flexible and interconnected ocean network with industry-leading reliability, quality, and sustainability being its cornerstones. Learn about our innovative ship recycling initiative and the expansion of our IT organisation with the inauguration of our Technology Centre in Chennai, and join us as we celebrate the installation of our one millionth dry container monitor device.

Rolf Habben Jansen and Vincent Clerc on our new 'Gemini Cooperation'

Hapag-Lloyd and Maersk have signed an agreement for a new long-term operational collaboration called 'Gemini Cooperation'. The collaboration will start in February 2025 and deliver a flexible and interconnected ocean network with industry-leading reliability, quality, and sustainability being its cornerstones.

Click here to learn more

Farewell, old Lady: New quality standards in ship recycling

Hapag-Lloyd is one of the world's first major shipping companies to recycle its own ships in accordance with strict EU environmental standards. In fact, almost everything is reused. A behind-the-scenes look at one of the biggest recycling yards in Turkey:

Learn more

Three locations – one team: our Hapag-Lloyd IT

With the opening of our Technology Center in Chennai, Hapag-Lloyd's IT organisation is now spread out over three office locations in three countries on two continents. And still, they are working as one team to strengthen our IT capabilities.

Read more

1,000,000 dry container monitoring devices installed!

On Tuesday, January 16th 2024, we recorded 1 millionth installation on our dry container fleet. We congratulate all involved stakeholders who have collaborated in creating the world's smartest container fleet so far. Maintaining the first-mover advantage in the industry, we commit to setting a new standard of operational efficiency and service quality for our customers.

Learn more

Picture of the month: Our container vessel "Al Zubara" at sea.

In this issue's Picture of the Month you can see our 400 metres long and 58 metres wide "Al Zubara" at sea. Almost 20,000 standard containers (TEU) fit on the ship.

Like to get stunning pictures?

Download this stunning shot of our Antwerpen Express

Leon Schulz

Niklas Jan

From our Corporate Communications Team