

Maersk Europe Market Update October 2024

The latest developments across key ports, ocean, air freight, inland, e-commerce and customs in Europe.

Read here

10th October 2024

As we enter the last quarter of the year, we reflect on the numerous disruptions we've seen in the past months and the measures companies are taking to fight them. Further in our newsletter, our expert dives into what it means to have a high-performing supply chain, we look ahead and prepare for regulatory changes in the EU, and rediscover the advantages of the main European gateway - Rotterdam. For the latest operational updates across Europe, head to our monthly Market Update.

The Road to Resilience

From a Maersk-owned survey of over 2,000 European businesses, our report analyses the various measures companies are taking in the ongoing fight against black swan events and supply chain disruption.

Download here →

Vessel Facing the New EU Regulations

New EU regulations are transforming trade compliance by requiring full transparency across supply chains. Businesses now face increased pressure to track their suppliers and the sourcing of raw materials. Read more to discover how these changes will impact your operations and what steps you can take to stay compliant.

Read more →

Rotterdam: Your Entry into Europe

A recent webinar highlighted the importance of Rotterdam's strategic location for connectivity to and from Europe. Find out the highlights from the webinar and get access to the full version to get practical insights into optimising your logistics.

Find out more →

The Marks of High Performers

The definition of "high-performing supply chains" is changing as we embrace the world of uncertainty and near continuous disruption. Hear from Johanna Hainz, Global Head of Customer Solutions at Maersk, on how companies can achieve high performance through visibility and collaboration.

Watch here →

Stuart Newman
Customer Communications Manager
Europe