

MSC to Showcase Expertise at Breakbulk & Project Cargo 2025!

19/03/2025

Breakbulk and Project Cargo Conference 2025 details:

 Date: 23 – 25 April

 Venue: Hilton New Orleans Riverside hotel, Louisiana, USA

MSC is gearing up for another productive year attending the Breakbulk and Project Cargo conference, taking place at the Hilton New Orleans Riverside hotel in Louisiana from 23-25 April. This event brings together experts, partners, and customers from across the transportation and logistics sector for networking, dealmaking, and discussions on the latest trends shaping the industry.

Tailor-Made Solutions for Complex Freight

MSC's Project Cargo experts are ready to provide customized, high-quality solutions for a diverse range of industries, including power generation, EPC projects, renewable energy and storage, infrastructure development, and oil and gas. With decades of experience and a global network, MSC is equipped to handle even the most complex logistics challenges.

Key Benefits of MSC's Breakbulk & Project Cargo Services:

- Centralized Approach – Ensuring consistency and reliability in service
- Largest Sailing Network – Extensive port coverage for optimal connectivity
- Capacity & Flexibility – Adaptable solutions to meet your project needs
- Industry Expertise – Decades of experience delivering high-quality service
- End-to-End Solutions – Intermodal, CFS, storage

Experience Seamless Logistics with MSC

MSC's commitment to excellence ensures that your cargo is handled with the utmost care and efficiency throughout its journey. From intermodal transportation to specialized storage, MSC delivers seamless, reliable, and tailored logistics services.

Meet MSC at Breakbulk & Project Cargo 2025

Don't miss the opportunity to connect with MSC's experts and explore our innovative solutions for your breakbulk and project cargo needs. We look forward to seeing you in New Orleans!

For more information about MSC's services and transportation solutions, please visit: msc.com.